NATIONAL BRANDS RELAUNCHED

Creative director working across brand identity, campaigns and design systems. Started as a packaging designer, ran an in-house team at a consumer brand, then built an independent studio that now works with food, fashion and telecom clients. Cares most about the unglamorous half of design — the system, the guidelines, the handoff — because that is what keeps a brand looking like itself a year later.

EXPERIENCE

- Studio Mango Founder & Creative Director 2018 – Present

Bengaluru, India · Brand · campaigns · packaging · motion

- Rebranded a 20-year-old FMCG label and lifted its shelf recall — sales rose 18% in the two quarters after relaunch.
 - Built and run a nine-person studio covering brand, motion and packaging for retainer clients in food and fashion.
 - Directed a national campaign for a telecom launch that reached 40 million people and won a Kyoorius bronze.
 - Set the design system three product teams now share, so a new landing page ships in a day instead of a week.
- Frooti (Parle Agro) Senior Brand Designer 2014 – 2018

Mumbai, India

- Owned packaging design across a 30-SKU range and cut new-SKU turnaround from six weeks to two.
 - Shaped the visual language for a summer campaign that ran across 12 cities.
- Ogilvy Art Director 2012 – 2014

Mumbai, India

- Art-directed print and film for two FMCG accounts, one of which grew share three points during the work.

PRODUCTS // PROJECTS

Handloom Co. identity

Full rebrand for a weavers' collective — logo, packaging and a storefront system now used across 40 outlets.

Metro transit signage

Wayfinding and pictogram set for a metro line, tested with 200 commuters before rollout.

+ ACHIEVEMENTS

- Rebranded three national labels, each of which grew sales in the year after relaunch.
- Won a Kyoorius bronze and two regional advertising awards for campaign work.
- Grew a solo practice into a nine-person studio profitable in its second year.
- Speak twice a year at design schools on building systems, not just logos.
